

The American Association of Christian Schools

What Does AACCS Offer Your School?

Profile:

Founded in 1972, the AACCS is a federation of state associations that work in harmony with the national association in providing member services. AACCS is unique in that it has the strength of a national coalition of Bible-believing Christian schools with the practicality of locally-controlled state associations.

Benefits for Schools:

- * Full-time National and Legislative Offices
- * Legislative oversight and representation in Washington DC
- * National Bible, Fine Arts, and Academic Competition
- * Washington Flyer
- * Fellowship with other member schools
- * Annual Christian Educators' Conventions
- * School Accreditation Program
- * Discount on standardized achievement testing
- * School Improvement Program
- * Parent Update
- * Teacher Placement Service
- * Legal hotline
- * Student Accident Insurance
- * Legal Report
- * Annual National Legislative Conference

Benefits for Teachers:

- * Teacher Certification Program
- * Teacher Placement Service
- * Journal for Christian Educators (3 issues per year)
- * AACCS RightPath Retirement Program
- * Fellowship with Christian educators from member schools
- * Supplemental insurance products
- * Professional Development Training

Benefits for Students:

- * National Bible, Fine Arts, and Academic Competition
- * Student Leadership Conferences
- * Youth Legislative Training Conference
- * Legislative internship programs
- * Fellowship with students from other Christian schools
- * American Christian Honor Society
- * Standardized achievement testing program

Purpose:

The AACCS is a service organization that exists –

- to provide legislative oversight
- to promote high-quality educational programs
- to encourage the goal of producing Christ-like young people
- to provide related institutional and personnel services to its constituency.

