

American Association of Christian Schools

Professional Employee Certification Program

The Bible states that the Holy Spirit has given gifts to individual Christians for the purpose of ministering to the saints. Among these gifts are the gifts of administration and teaching (Romans 12:6–8; 1 Corinthians 12:5–11, 23–31; Ephesians 4:11–16).

The Christian school, if it is to maintain a reputation for academic excellence, must employ the services of teachers and administrators who are academically qualified to assume their teaching and administrative responsibilities. The proper professional training is a prerequisite to quality education.

Academic preparedness, as important as it is, does not take the place of, nor can it be a substitute for, the spiritual requirements and responsibilities of Christian school teachers and administrators. A balance of spiritual insight, dedication, and love, combined with the academic preparedness to meet the demands of the classroom, are essential ingredients for excellence in the Christian school.

The American Association of Christian Schools (AACCS) has developed the Professional Employee Certification Program for the benefit of its member schools. The Program provides objective standards for evaluating and recognizing the preparation of current professional employees.

The AACCS Certification Program also provides parents with the assurance that professional educators have examined the credentials of those to whom they entrust their children for academic training. This Program does not evaluate the spiritual characteristics of personnel, except to require that the employing school recommend the applicant and that he/she subscribe to the AACCS Statement of Faith.

This AACCS service must not be construed as a license to teach or to perform duties in a Christian school. It should never be represented as such to parents or to governmental entities. The AACCS Certification Program simply provides a uniform procedure for appraising the professional credentials of teachers and administrators.

A certificate may be revoked at any time the holder is found to be guilty of violating Christian standards of conduct and/or professional ethics. In such cases the person charged with the violation shall be notified of the charges and given opportunity to defend himself/herself, after which the decision of the AACCS Accreditation Commission shall be final.

Information

College Credit

College credit must be from an accredited or AACSB-recognized college or university. Accredited schools must be accredited by an agency approved by the USDOE.

Converting Professional Development Credit or Quarter Hours

Continuing Education Units (CEUs) are commonly offered for attendance at seminars sponsored by universities, teachers' conventions, or other educational institutions. Those who receive qualified instruction are awarded one contact hour for each hour of class time. Since one semester hour normally requires 15 hours of classroom instruction, one semester hour = 15 contact hours. Whether earned as college credit or from professional development sources, the teacher must submit the required number of contact hours to renew. Quarter Hours may be divided by 1.5 to convert to semester hours.

Provisional Certification

A candidate with 128 semester hours of college credit may qualify for a provisional certificate while progressing toward degree completion.

Lifetime Certification

A candidate with an earned doctorate may renew an Advanced Professional certificate for a Lifetime certificate if he has at least 7 years in education.

CLEP

No CLEP credits are accepted for certificate renewal.

Replacement Certificates

The cost for re-evaluation or replacement certificates is $10.

Please write your testimony of salvation:

Please briefly explain how the Lord led you to teach in a Christian school:

Statement of Faith

We believe that the Bible, both the Old and New Testaments, was verbally inspired of God and is inerrant and is our only rule in matters of faith and practice. We believe in creation, not evolution; that man was created by the direct act of God and in the image of God. We believe that Adam and Eve, in yielding to the temptation of Satan, became fallen creatures. We believe that all men are born in sin. We believe in the Incarnation, the Virgin Birth, and the Deity of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. We believe in the vicarious and substitutional Atonement for the sins of mankind by the shedding of His blood on the cross. We believe in the resurrection of His body from the tomb, His ascension to Heaven, and that He is now our Advocate. We believe that He is personally coming again. We believe in His power to save men from sin. We believe in the necessity of the New Birth, and that this New Birth is through the regeneration of the Holy Spirit. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith, plus nothing minus nothing, in the atoning blood of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

We believe that this statement of faith is basic for Christian fellowship and that all born-again men and women who sincerely accept it and are separated from the world of apostasy and sin can and should live together in peace, and that it is their Christian duty to promote harmony among the Believers.

We further believe in the Biblical doctrine of ecclesiastical separation, and therefore believe that churches and Christian schools should not be associated with, members of, or in accord with organizations or movements such as the World Council of Churches, the National Council of Churches, the modern charismatic movement, or the ecumenical movement.

I am in complete agreement with the AACCS Statement of Faith.
