Local Students Place in National Competition

(Hometown, ST)—Students from (XYZ Christian School) competed in the 42nd annual American Association of Christian Schools (AACCS) National Competition held at Bob Jones University in Greenville, S.C., on April 9–11, 2019.

Approximately 2,100 students and sponsors from 29 states participated in the AACCS National Competition, having captured top honors in their state contests. The students, representing over 200 Christian high schools, competed in 76 categories in the five basic areas of Bible, music, speech, art, and academics.

The Bible competition included Bible quiz teams, preaching, and teaching. Academic competition included academic testing and a science fair. Music students challenged each other in solo and group competitions for both vocal and instrumental music. Speech contestants participated in such categories as debate, dramatic interpretation, original oratory, acting, plus other categories. Art students displayed their pieces for the art contest.

The following places were captured by (XYZ Christian School) students:

Suggestions:

1. At the bottom of your news release, include a one sentence description of (XYZ Christian School).
Example: A fundamental Christian School, (XYZ Christian School) was founded in 19XX to train tomorrow's Christian leaders; it enrolls X students annually, grades K-12.
2. Enclose black and white glossy individual wallet-size pictures of winners.
3. When you name the students, identify as "son of (parents) of (hometown)."
4. Send to the local newspapers, addressed to the city editor.
